INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Though weighed down by grief, Martha rushes out to meet Jesus. She may not understand why he was absent upon the death of her brother, but her faithfulness is undeterred. In the hour of her heartbreak, she knows her only solace is in the embrace of the Lord. @LPI

Feast of St. Patrick's

A heartfelt "THANK YOU" to the Mantineo Family (Maureen, Madison, Barbara & Tara) for bringing the "Spirit of the Irish" to our parish on St. Patrick's Day.

Sunday Reflection

Beginning with the Transfiguration, which was a taste of God's glory in this life, and up to this fifth Sunday of Lent, during which Jesus heals a blind man, reveals the true God to the Samaritan woman and gives Lazarus a new life, also in this life.

Each Gospel reading has been about Our Lord drawing close to us according to our capacity and need. In an ordinary apartment in Paris, in 1937, a great intellectual (and just as great an atheist) of our time, named Manuel Garcia Morente, experienced all this: transfiguration and a new life that led him back to the Church and even to a priesthood which lasted for only a few short years before his death. Like Jesus approaching the blind man, Father Morente in his diary about that time of his life (called The Extraordinary Event) first speaks of his problem of self-reliance and a rejection of God's involvement in human life: "In Paris, God granted me enough protection not to fall into total and abject misery, but just enough not to erase all humiliation, anxiety and sorrow from my soul...it was as if some unknown power, the absolute master of human affairs, was arranging without me everything that was mine. I would go as far as saying that everything I did or tried to do by my own initiative either went bad or ended in failure...for the third time the idea of Providence impressed itself on my mind. I rejected it with stubbornness and pride, but not without a vague feeling of anguish and confusion." On one particular night after many sleepless nights, Our Lord prepared the soil of his mind and heart by inspiring his imagination with images of the Cross (just like the clay used on the blind man or the conversation with the Samaritan woman before Jesus revealed who he really was): "the arms of Our Crucified Lord extended. And those arms grew and grew, and seemed to embrace all human suffering and covered it with the immensity of his love. And the cross got taller and taller until it reached the sky and filled the entire horizon...I alone saw myself kneeling in that deserted landscape, with eyes fixed above, watching the last flashes of that infinite glory distance itself from me." When a sense of peace and openness began to take over, Fr. Morente experienced a transfiguration, the "extra-ordinary event": "I got on my feet shaking all over and opened wide the window. A blast of cold air hit my face. I turned my face back to the interior of the room and I was petrified. God was there-not as something I could see, hear, or touch, but God was there...I don't know how long I was frozen like that and somewhat hypnotized before His presence. All I know is that I dared not move and I would have liked the entire thing (God's presence there) to last forever, because that presence flooded with such intimate joy that nothing is comparable to the super-human delight I felt. It was like a suspension of any sense of bodily weight or gravity, a subtlety so delicate throughout the matter of which we are composed, that you could almost say I no longer had a body, as if my entire person had been transformed into a breath or a breeze of air. It was a caress so infinitely agreeable, impalpable, immaterial, that emanated from God, that it enveloped me and lifted me, as a child in its mother's arms." This modern experience gives flesh to the gospel as something personal and active in every human age.

Please join us on Friday, April 7, at 7:00 p.m., at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Chapel, for Mary's Way of the Cross. Mary asks us "come be with me in my time of need as I am with you in yours". "It was the first glimpse I had of my son since they took him away. His bruised and bleeding skin sent a sword of pain within my heart..." Will you walk the final steps with me this Good Friday?

Thank You! Thank You!

Dear Friends:

Last weekend, we celebrated the Feast of our Patron, St. Joseph. Many people stopped by the church to spend some time with our Lord during the 24 Hours of Prayer. That evening, the church was filled to capacity for the Solemn Mass in honor of St. Joseph. The festivities ended that night with a splendid Dinner Celebration where good food and a good time was had by all.

I would like to thank all those, who, in some way participated in the celebrations: the many parish Ministries, and parishioners.

A total of $5,090 was raised with the sale of the dinner tickets that will be used towards this year's Archdiocesan Appeal goal. Thank you for always being so generous towards your parish.

May St. Joseph bestow his blessing on this beautiful parish and all those who come to worship here.

With gratitude,

Rev. Helber Victoria, Pastor

¡Gracias! ¡Gracias!

Apreciados amigos:

El pasado fin de semana, celebramos la fiesta de nuestro patrón, San José. Muchas personas visitaron el Santísimo para estar con nuestro Señor durante las 24 Horas de Oración. La Misa Solemne en honor de San José que se celebró el Sábado con capacidad llena de feligreses. Las festividades terminaron esa noche con una espléndida Fiesta y Cena donde todos disfrutaron de buena comida y un buen rato.

Quisiera dar las gracias a todos aquellos que, de alguna manera, participaron en estas celebraciones como Ministerios parroquiales y resto de feligrecia.

En la cena en honor a San José se recaudó un total de $5,090 que serán destinados a apoyar la campaña Anual Arquidiocesana. Gracias por su generosidad y que San José otorgue su bendición a esta hermosa parroquia y a todos aquellos que vienen a profesar su fe con nosotros.

Siempre agradecido,

P. Helber Victoria, Párroco

2023 Anniversary Liturgies

The Archdiocese of Newark is once again preparing the annual tradition of honoring those couples in our Archdiocese who will be celebrating five, twenty-five and fifty years of valid marriage for the Catholic faithful in the year 2023.

These anniversary liturgies will be held in the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark as follows below. The 50th Anniversary Mass will be celebrated by Cardinal Joseph Tobin. The 5th and 25th Anniversary Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Greg Studerus.

April 16, 2023:- 3:00 p.m. - 50 years (All counties)

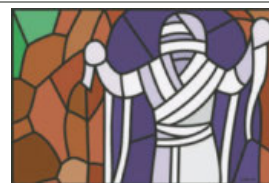

May 7, 2023:- 3:00 p.m. - 5 & 25 years (All counties)

It is our desire that every couple in the Archdiocese deserving of such recognition be present at the appropriate liturgy. The presence of these couples will be a tender witness to the strength and stability of Christian marriage in today's society. Any couple who would have celebrated their Silver or Gold anniversary in the years 2020, 2021 and 2022 may still join us as well (the certificates will still say Silver or Gold.)

Please call the parish office for more information and to register for the anniversary Mass.

Fifth Sunday in Lent

Entrance

Forty Days and Forty Nights (419)

Forty days and forty nights you were fasting in the wild; Forty days and forty nights, tempted and yet undefiled.

Shall not we your sorrow share
and from worldly joys abstain, fasting with unceasing prayer,
strong with you to suffer pain?

Liturgy of the Word. Page 140 (Year A)

First Reading: Ezekiel 37: 12-14

Responsorial Psalm: With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Second Reading: Romans 8: 8-11

Gospel Acclamation: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel: John 11: 1-45 or 11: 3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45

Homily

Offertory (632)

Those Who Love and Those Who Labor

Those who love and those who labor
follow in the way of Christ;
Thus the first disciples found him,
thus the gift of love sufficed.
Jesus says to those who seek him,
I will never pass you by;
Raise the stone and you shall find me;
Cleave the wood, and there am I.

Where the many work together, they with Christ himself abide,
but the lonely workers also find in ever at their side.

Lo, the Prince of common welfare dwells within the market strife;
Lo, the bread of heav'n is broken
in the sacrament of life.

Communion

My Shepherd Will Supply My Need (606)

My shepherd will supply my need;
The God of love supreme;
In pastures green you make me feed,
Beside the living streams.
You bring my wand'ring spirit back,
When I forsake your ways;
and lead me for your mercy's sake,
In paths of truth and grace.

When I walk through the shades of death,
your presence is my stay;
One word of your supporting breath
Drives all my fears away.
Your hand, in sight of all my foes,
Does still my table spread;
My cup with blessings over flows,
Your oil anoints my head.

The sure provisions of my God
attend me all my days;
O may your house be my abode,
and all my work be praise!
There would I find a settle rest,
while others go and come,
No more a stranger nor a guest;
But like a child
a home.

Recessional

Come, My Way, My Truth, My Life (569)

Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life:
Such a way as gives us breath;
Such a truth as ends all strife;
Such a life as killed death.

Come, my Light, my Feast, my Strength:
Such a light as shows a feast;
Such a feast as mends in length;
Such as strength as makes his guest.

Come, my Joy, my Love, my Heart:
Such a joy as none can move;
Such a love as none can part;
Such a heart as joys in love.

Quinto Domingo de Cuaresma

Canción de Entrada

Dios No Quiere la Muerte (346)

Estríbillo:

Dios no quiere la muerte del pecador, sino que viva, que se convierta, que se convierta y que viva.

Tu palabra es luz que me ilumina.
Tu palabra es pan que me alimenta.
Con tu cuerpo y tu sangre me confortas,
y me haces vivir tu misma vida.

Voy sediento buscando el agua viva,
Como ciego ansío ver tu luz.
Siento heridas de muerte mas no temo, porque sé que contigo viviré.

Liturgia de la Palabra-Pág. 141 (Año A)

Primera Lectura: Ezequiel 37, 12-14

Salmo Responsorial: Del Señor viene la misericordia, la redención copiosa.

Segunda Lectura: Romanos 8, 8-11

Aclamación: Alabanza a ti, oh Cristo, ¡Rey de eterna gloria!

Evangelio: Juan 11, 1-45 o bien 11, 3-7. 17.20-27. 33-45
Homilía

Canción de Ofertorio

Donde Hay Fe (635, III Ed)

Estríbillo:

Donde hay fe, hay amor. Donde hay amor, existe paz. Donde hay paz, ahí está Dios. Donde está Dios, no falta nada.

La fe, cual un granito de mostaza, siendo una semilla tan pequeña,
se convierte en un árbol robusto que florece y fructifica amor.

Cuando el amor inunda nuestras vidas, viene y nos transforma la existencia porque así es el gran mandamiento que nos ha encomendado el Señor.

Canción de Comunión

Entre Tus Manos (675)

Estríbillo:

Entre tus manos está mi vida, Señor.
Entre tus manos pongo mi existir.
Hay que morir para vivir.
Entre tus manos confío mi ser.

Si el grano de trigo no muere, si no muere,
solo quedará; pero si muere,
en abundancia dará un fruto eterno que no morirá.

Es mi anhelo, mi anhelo creciente, en el surco, contigo morir; y fecunda será la simiente, Señor, revestida de eterno vivir.

Y si vivimos, para El vivimos; y si morimos, para El morimos. Sea que vivamos o que muramos, somos del Señor, somos del Señor.

Canción de Salida

Pueblo Santo y Elegido (721)

Caminamos hacia ti,
oh ciudad de nuestro Dios,
construyendo en este mundo la verdad y el amor.

Estríbillo:

Pueblo Santo y elegido congregado en el amor, vas buscando, peregrino, la ciudad de nuestro Dios.

Avanzamos, peregrinos,
con Jesús nuestra esperanza.
El nos salva, él nos guía,
con la luz de su palabra.

Paris, 126 Boulevard Sévigné

Reflexión del Domingo

Empezando con la Transfiguración de Nuestro Señor, que fue una experiencia de la gloria de Dios, hasta esta quinta y última semana de cuaresma, donde Jesús se revela a la mujer Samaritana, sana un ciego, y confiere a Lázaro una nueva vida también en esta vida, cada Evangelio nos ha hablado de como Dios se acerca a cada ser humano pero según su capacidad y necesidad. En un apartamento ordinario en Paris, durante el año 1937, un gran intelectual y ateo de nuestro tiempo, Manuel García Morente, experimentó cosas similares: una transfiguración y un corazón nuevo que lo llevó a abrazar no solo la Iglesia sino un sacerdocio que duró solo unos pocos años antes de su muerte. Como Jesús acercándose al ciego, Padre Morente habla primero en su diario sobre el suceso (titulado El Hecho Extraordinario) de como Dios lo fue amansando a través de muchas experiencias de su inadecuación humana: "En Paris, Dios me protegió lo suficientemente para no dejarme caer en las abyecciones de la total miseria, y, sin embargo, no tanto que borrara de mi alma la humillación, la angustia, la congoja...yo permanecía pasivo por completo e ignorante de todo lo que me sucedía. Dijérase que algún poder incógnito, dueño absoluto del acontecer humano, arreglaba sin mí todo lo mío. Es más: todo lo que yo hacía o intentaba por propia iniciativa salía mal y fracasaba...por tercera vez la idea de la Providencia se clavó en mi mente. Por tercera vez la rechacé con terquedad y soberbia. Pero también con un vago sentimiento de angustia y de confusión." Durante una noche, después de noches sin dormir, Nuestro Señor primero inspiró su imaginación con unas imágenes (como el lodo en las manos de Jesús que abrió los ojos de un ciego) de la cruz: "los brazos de Cristo crecían, crecían, y parecían abrazar a toda aquella humanidad doliente y cubrirla con la inmensidad de su amor...o yo me veía a mí mismo, en aquel paisaje ya desierto, arrodillado y con los ojos puestos en lo alto y viendo desvanecerse los últimos resplandores de aquella gloria infinita, que se alejaba de mí." Nuestro Señor estaba preparando el terreno de su corazón. Cuando la paz y un sentido de apertura adueñó su alma, el P. Morente empezó a experimentar una Transfiguración: "Volví la cara hacia el interior de la habitación y me quedé petrificado. Allí estaba Dios. Yo no lo veía, yo no lo oía, yo no lo tocaba. Pero Él estaba allí...era como una suspensión de todo lo que en el cuerpo pesa y gravita, una sutileza tan delicada de toda mi materia, que dijérase no tenía corporeidad, como si yo todo hubiese sido transformado en un suspiro o céfiro o hálito. Era una caricia infinitamente suave, impalpable, incorpórea, que emanaba de Él y que me envolvía y me sustentaba en vilo, como la madre que tiene en sus brazos al niño." La experiencia moderna del P. Morente y su nueva vida después del suceso "encarna" el Evangelio como algo personal y operativo en cada época humana.
